The Property

The spacious reception hallway is where the solid oak staircase rises to the first floor and to the part galleried landing.

Oak doors are fitted throughout the house and oak flooring runs from the hall into the main reception room. This delightful room is accessed through double doors and has a brick fireplace fitted with a log burner. Full length windows flood the room with light from the east and southern aspects.

Adjacent to the sitting room is a dining room with glazed doors to the east facing terrace. The kitchen/breakfast/family room, currently used as a ground floor bedroom, is a lovely welcoming area with the kitchen separated by a large breakfast peninsular. There is ample storage provision with kitchen units incorporating a larder cupboard, large drawers and corner storage, integrated fridge/freezer, dishwasher and bin store. Appliances also include an eye level fan oven and grill with combination microwave above and a separate induction hob with extractor hood. The seating area is set around an electric feature fireplace with large windows overlooking the front and forest.

Adjacent to the kitchen is an extremely spacious and well equipped utility room with additional oven, sink and hob. and wet room, ideal for washing dogs (or children!) returning from the forest.

There is also a cloakroom and storage cupboard. Finally completing the ground floor is the integral garage with electric door.

The first floor landing is wonderful with ample space for a study and reading area and above is a gallery with oak doors to the large loft space which is fully boarded and would convert to various uses, if required.

The principal bedroom suite is very spacious with a separate dressing room and large en suite bathroom having a bath and separate shower cubicle. The guest suite has an adjacent en suite shower room and there are two further double bedrooms each served by the large family shower room.
