

20 Fleur de Lis , Wiltshire Road Wokingham RG40 1BQ

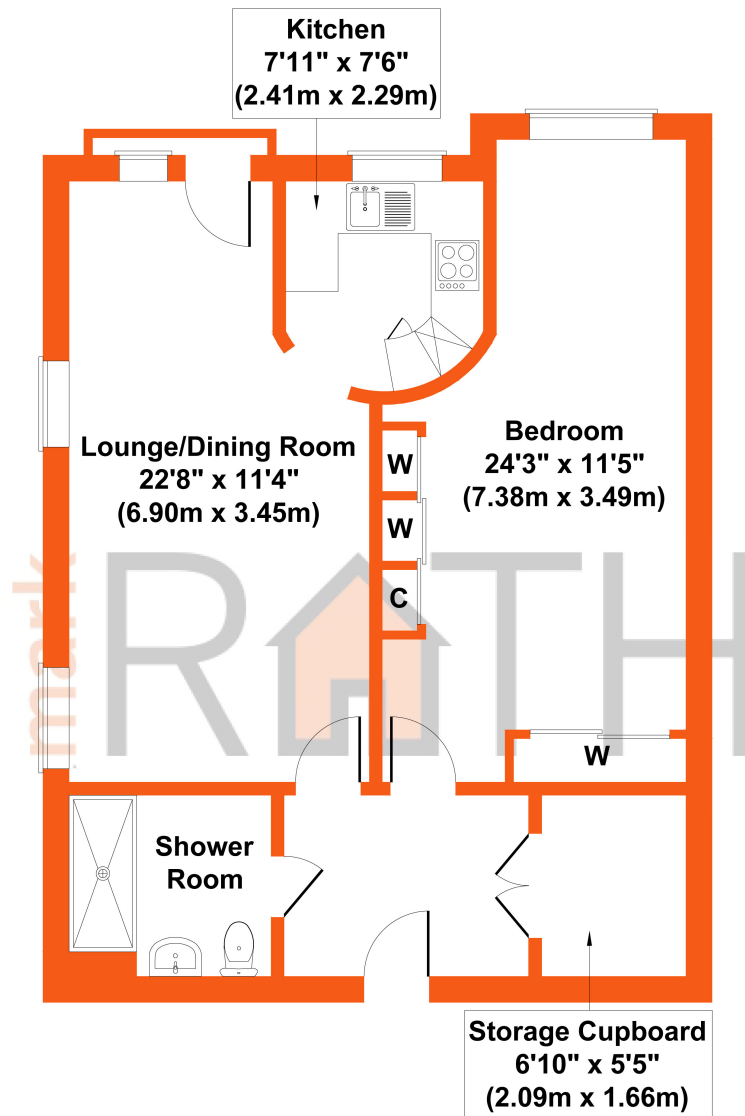

Offered to the market with no onward chain a first floor apartment in this prestigious over 65's retirement development. The spacious highly energy efficient accommodation, EPC-B rating, which amounts to a generous 707 sq ft and matching many comparable two bedrooms apartments comprises: secure gated communal gardens, secure communal entrance hall with video entry phone, concierge office and residents living room. Communal areas are continually maintained and to high standards with a lift and stairs serving all floors. On the first floor landing a personal front door to large entrance hall with useful walk in store room. There is an impressive light and bright dual aspect living room with a 'Juliet' balcony, plus a uniquely shaped separate fully fitted kitchen with integrated appliances. Sizeable c. 24' master bedroom with en-suite shower room - carefully designed with high end fitments and wide walk in shower. The whole block is heated via a communal heat pump system which is located in the basement and each flat is individually billed for consumption. This secure gated development is surrounded by meticulously manicured communal gardens and has visitor parking. An impressive development a short walk from the centre of town and just slightly further to the station so living here without a vehicle is a genuine option, however if parking is required underground spaces are usually available to rent via the management. Flat 20 attracts a half yearly
