

Scott House, Withgill, Clitheroe BB7 3LW

Clitheroe A59 3 miles

Preston M6 12 miles

A rare opportunity to acquire a country retreat comprising a six bedroom principle residence in private surround with extensive views of the Hodder Valley and beyond, a three bedroom detached farmhouse, extensive range of modern steel frame general purpose sheds, meadows and pastures with some woodland bounded by the River Hodder in all extending to 53.79 acres or thereabouts. The property is freehold with the benefit of vacant possession and is offered for sale as a whole but offers will be considered for the principle residence with garage, separate driveway and land down to the River Hodder at a reduced price.

The Principle Residence is the former detached stonebuilt barn which has been sympathetically converted to a spacious six bedroom dwelling in an unrivalled setting with magnificent views.

The Farmhouse is detached and is constructed of stone walls under a blue slate roof with the exception of a gable lean-to and a rear lean-to constructed of brick walls under monopitch slate roofs. The front of the house is exposed stone work and the remaining elevations have a pebble dash render.

The Farmbuildings comprises a range of steel portal frame sheds extending to 27,450 sq ft with separate access to the council road.

The Farmland is level productive meadow land and pasture land with a southerly aspect sloping gently down to the River Hodder and is shown on the plan with a boundary edged red.

Clitheroe is a market town only three miles away with busy shopping streets, major supermarkets / discount stores, pubs, restaurants, cafés, medical centre, hospital, schools for all ages, petrol stations, recreation parks, walks along the River Ribble and around Clitheroe Castle. Longridge is another market town close by. The A59 Clitheroe bypass gives easy access to Skipton and Preston, M6 Motorway, Garstang, Blackpool, Blackburn, Burnley and Manchester.
