PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Beautifully presented, deceptively spacious four double bedroom detached in a much sought after location in Baildon. Ideally situated on the edge of Baildon village, with amenities such as the co-op supermarket within walking distance.

The property has been meticulously refurbished to a high standard over recent years and boasts a wealth of charm. Benefiting from double glazing with the original leaded feature glass encapsulated within the glazing to the front of the house, gas central heating, monitored intruder alarm, well insulated with rockwool insulation, and modern high quality fixtures and fittings throughout.

Briefly comprises; entrance hallway, three reception rooms, modern bespoke kitchen installed and manufactured by Bernard Hobson of Baildon, utility room, downstairs w.c, home office and garden room to the ground floor. Four double bedrooms, two en-suite shower rooms and family bathroom to the first floor. Outside, there are gardens to the front, side and rear, with driveway leading to the garage.

Internal viewing is essential to appreciate the size and quality of the accommodation on offer.
