Location

Halstead is a charming market town in north Essex, set amid rolling countryside and steeped in history. It offers a welcoming community atmosphere with a traditional high street featuring independent shops, cafés, and local amenities. The River Colne runs through the town, adding to its picturesque appeal, while nearby countryside walks and parks make it ideal for outdoor enthusiasts. Halstead also benefits from good transport links to Colchester, Braintree, and Sudbury, as well as a selection of well-regarded schools, making it a popular choice for families and commuters alike.
