

37, Plough Lane Wokingham RG40 1RQ

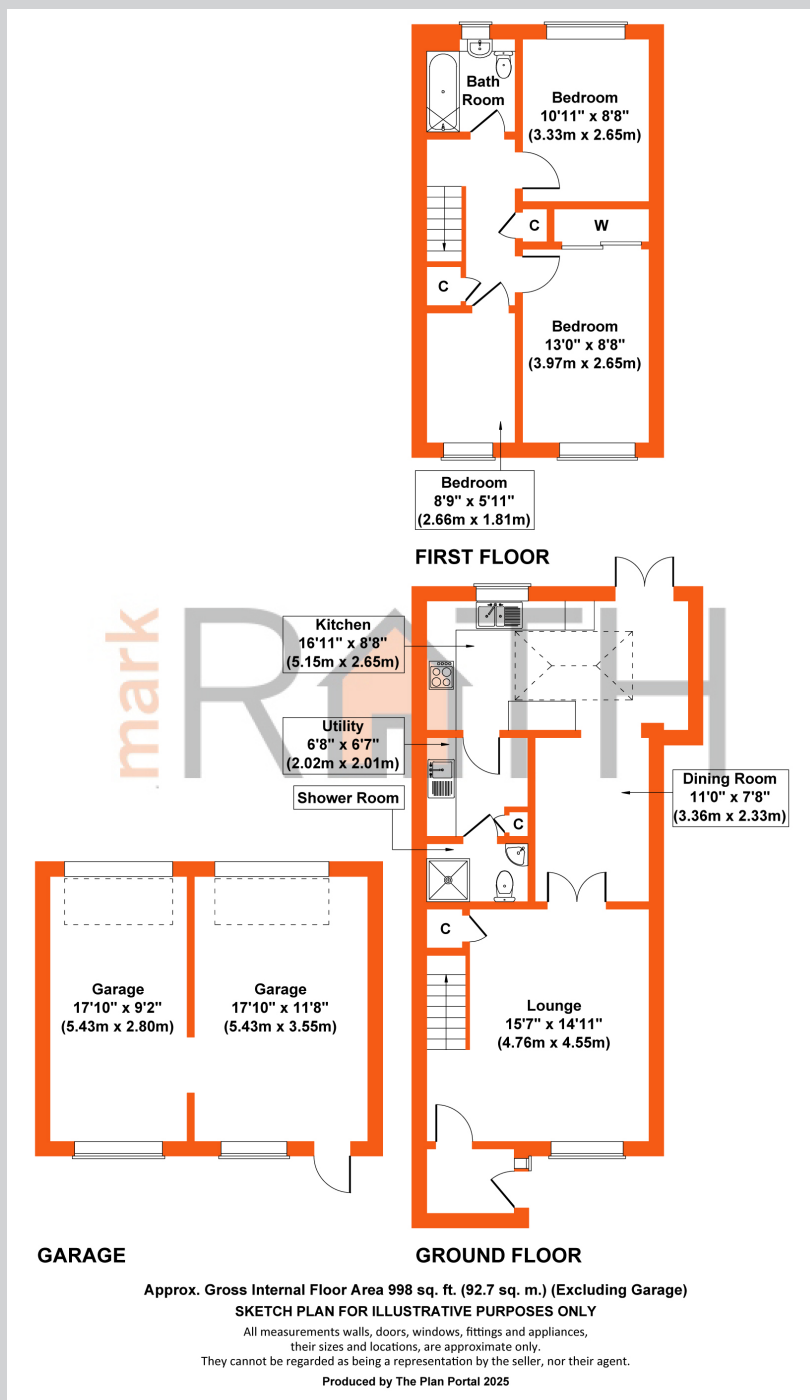

A lovely family home with a large mature c.90' rear garden. Located just over one and a quarter miles to Wokingham Market Place, a smartly presented end terrace home offering 998 sq ft of accommodation and an excellent EPC rating of C. On the ground floor you enter the entrance lobby which leads to a living room with double doors leading through to the dining area opening to the extension providing a modern fitted kitchen with roof lantern allowing light to flow in. There is a further separate utility room and downstairs shower room. Upstairs there are three good sized bedrooms and a modern white family bathroom suite. The double doors from the kitchen lead out to the c.90' garden comprising a patio area and the majority being laid to lawn and established shrubs with a secluded second patio at the rear. At the bottom of the garden there are two garages with light, power and up and over doors, plus vehicular parking accessed by a driveway alongside the other end of the terrace. NB The garages do require significant overhaul and there is restricted vehicular access to one of the garages.
