The Situation

The property is situated within the Sandy Balls Holiday Park; an idyllic retreat for short breaks offering spectacular grounds and leisure facilities. Although the property is situated within the grounds of the holiday park, it's tucked along a quiet lane away from the hustle and bustle during the busy season, set within private gardens and surrounded by beautiful Scots Pines offering a great deal of seclusion. There are only a handful of similar privately owned lodges within the small cul-de-sac with a lovely community feel. Fordingbridge is the closest town at approximately 3 miles, providing an excellent range of shops and amenities. The A338 is easily accessible, providing links to the market town of Ringwood (approximately 9 miles south), and to Salisbury (approximately 12 miles north). The larger coastal towns of Bournemouth and Christchurch are approximately 19 miles south via the A338.
