Summary

Forming part of the sought-after Dykes of Gray residential development, this modern detached house boasts a desirable location on the rural outskirts of Dundee, yet remains within easy reach of the city centre. The ground-floor accommodation comprises a spacious living room, an attractively fitted kitchen with space for seated dining, and an archway leading to a triple-aspect sunroom, creating a semi-open-plan layout. Completing the home are four spacious bedrooms, with the principal benefiting from an en-suite and a wardrobe, as well as a family bathroom featuring vanity storage. Outside, the corner property features private gardens, a generous paved driveway, and a single garage. Extras: All fitted floor and window coverings, light fittings and kitchen appliances are included.
