Description

Lion House offers the best of both worlds – a really charming old Cotswold cottage bursting with character but located in the heart of the bustling town of Nailsworth, only a stone's throw from all the shops and cafes. This Grade II listed property has great character features throughout, including fireplaces, exposed stone, exposed floorboards and window seats.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors with a front entrance lobby shared with Lion Cottage, as the cottages were once a public house called The Red Lion Inn. A farmhouse style kitchen with Belfast sink leads through to a dining room and on into the sitting room with a large bay window. A door leads from the dining room into a rear hallway with a flagstone floor, stained glass windows and a traditional timber door to the outside. Stone steps lead from here to the parking space, which is accessed off Butcher Hills Lane. On the first floor there are two bedrooms and a bathroom. On the floor above is a lovely bedroom which runs the entire length of the cottage and has an exposed A-frame and three skylights.

Outside

There is parking for one vehicle to the rear of the cottage.

Location

"What is this life if, full of care, we have no time to stand and stare?" - these are the opening lines of the world-famous poem Leisure by W H Davies, written in 1911 while he was living in a cottage at Watledge. Today, Nailsworth has changed a great deal since Davies' time, but there is still much to stand and stare at in the bustling town centre, home to many independent businesses, selling everything from artisan bread, meat and fish to stationery, fashion and handmade jewellery. Nestling at the bottom of steep wooded hills, Nailsworth is now an attractive and vibrant shopping destination, with a large selection of interesting speciality shops and cafes, including the famous Williams Food Hall and Hobbs House Bakery. It is a quirky and friendly town, with a good selection of restaurants, as well as three supermarkets, a regular farmers' market and a 'green' football club. Nailsworth is well positioned for both town and country. Climb the steep 'W' hill out of town and you find yourself on acres of stunning National Trust common land, home to a prestigious golf course. The town is also on the doorstep of beautiful Woodchester Park, with miles of woodland walks and secluded lakes. Yet just four miles away is Stroud, with more comprehensive shopping, educational and leisure facilities, connected by bus services. Junctions of the M4 and M5 motorways are within easy reach and railway stations at Stroud (4 miles) and Kemble (10 miles) provide main line services to Gloucester, Swindon and London Paddington.

Directions

Agents note

There is a pedestrian right of way for the adjoining cottage to give access to their back door. There is also vehicular access shared with both neighbouring cottages.

The photos being used were from when a tenant was in situ.
