The Property

Entering through the front communal door, a shared hallway leads to a staircase up to the first floor. The private front door to the flat opens into a split-level entrance hallway, guiding you into the heart of the home; a beautifully light and spacious open-plan living, kitchen, and dining area.

Situated on the west side of the building, this main living space is flooded with natural light through three large windows and features high ceilings and a central fireplace.

The kitchen area is fitted with a range of wall-mounted and floor-standing units, generous worktop space, and a feature breakfast bar on the central island, with an overhead extractor. There is space and plumbing for a fridge-freezer, washing machine, and tumble dryer, as well as a stainless steel sink with drainer. A striking floor-to-ceiling window provides a lovely front aspect and enhances the light, open feel of the space.

Off the entrance hallway, the principal bedroom is a generous double, with a window to the south side of the building offering distant sea glimpses. A full wall of fitted wardrobes provides excellent storage.

Bedroom two is also a spacious double, enjoying dual-aspect windows to the south and east, making it a bright and versatile room.

The family bathroom features a walk-in shower cubicle, feature bath with handheld shower attachment, wash hand basin, and WC. The property benefits from a large attic storage room situated directly above the flat.

The Situation

Barton on Sea is a quiet residential area in a stunning coastal setting with beach and cliff top views across Christchurch Bay, sweeping from Hurst Castle to Hengistbury Head. The sand and shingle beach is ideal for bathing and sunbathing, while the cliff top is ideal for coastal dog walks.

Barton has a history dating back to Anglo Saxon times, however it developed relatively recently. Apart from a row of old coastguard cottages, it mostly comprises avenues and closes of mid-century and modern family homes, chalets, imaginative new builds and substantial houses.

Popular with retirees, Barton has been discovered by young families, attracted by the relaxed outdoorsy lifestyle, with coast on one side and New Forest on the other, plus good state and independent schools; these include Durlston Court and Ballard School, both rated 'excellent'.

Facilities include cliff top restaurants and Barton on Sea Golf Club, a 27-hole cliff top course. Barton also benefits from the extensive amenities of neighbouring New Milton. Among these are a mainline station with train services to London in around two hours, arts centre, selection of shops ranging from an M&S food store to a traditional department store and weekly market.
