Description

Cross Key Cottage is a delightful, detached period residence that enjoys an enviable and slightly elevated position in the desirable village of All Cannings. The home is constructed of mainly brick elevations under a tiled roof. The property has been in the same ownership for many years and is now ready for the next exciting phase of its life to be ceased upon. The home offers pleasing and extended accommodation and enjoys a host of period features and charm. The house does require updating and enhancement however is perfectly habitable in its current form having all modern comforts and heating. The accommodation in brief comprises an entrance porch that gives access to the lounge with fireplace and stairs to the upper level and door to the dining room which in turn has a door to the family room / office. The kitchen / breakfast room has a range of wall and base units along with glazed doors to the rear. Also, on the ground floor is a shower room and WC. On the first floor, a long landing gives access to the four bedrooms and family bathroom.

Outside

A track at the side of the home leads to the parking area and access to the substantial four car garage outbuilding with power and light. At the immediate rear of the house is a large brick patio area with planting and pond. The substantial grounds are approximately 2.25 acres with mature trees and mainly lawned areas. With the rear grounds is a generous detached outbuilding.

Agent note – There is a public path that runs to the rear of the garden.

Viewing comes highly recommended to realise the full charm of this substantial village residence. (BY APPOINTMENT ONLY)
