13 Ludgate Hill, Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire GL12 7JJ

Nestled only moments from Wotton's historic High Street, this prestigious Grade II home exudes heritage and character. Steeped in history from the late 18th Century, the interior showcases enchanting features such as exposed wooden beams, charming fireplaces, and a late medieval plank door, complete with large nail heads and ornamental strap hinges. The welcoming entrance hall leads to a lounge bathed in natural light from the stunning 19th-century bay window, wooden beams, and a beautiful stone inglenook fireplace, with the only working woodburner – the perfect retreat on a winter's evening. An arched opening leads to the staircases in front, and to your right, a contemporary kitchen/breakfast room. Thoughtfully extended under previous ownership, this space offers ample worktops, cabinetry, and shelving throughout. The Rangemaster oven is perfect for crafting family feasts, while a separate door provides easy outdoor access onto the rear courtyard garden. Spanning the full width of the original home, a versatile second reception is slightly partitioned by exposed beams – perfect for a teenager's retreat to one end and formal dining at the other. The room also features the second Georgian bay window, a second fireplace, and direct access to the outdoor space. Hidden here is the entrance to the cellar, perfect for storage and features a window and lighting. Upstairs, two impressive double bedrooms boast built-in storage, fireplaces and sun-soaked southwest-facing windows. The single bedroom, currently dressed as an office, features dual wardrobes and a doorway onto a raised terrace – perfect for al-fresco dining. The room can be expanded by removing the built-in storage. An additional bathroom completes this floor. Above, the exceptional principal bedroom stretches over 8 metres, offering vaulted ceilings, ample lighting from three sash windows, and built-in wardrobes. An additional bathroom creates a serene escape from a stressful day with a jet bath and separate shower. At the same time, the fourth single bedroom adds further practicality with additional built-in storage. Blending comfort with character, this home is located near Bluecoat Primary School, The Great British School, and the esteemed Katharine Lady Berkeley's Secondary School, with local amenities in reach and the Cotswold Way passing by - a true reflection of this sought-after town.
