This generous home is tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac, conveniently located within easy reach of the train station and the High Street.

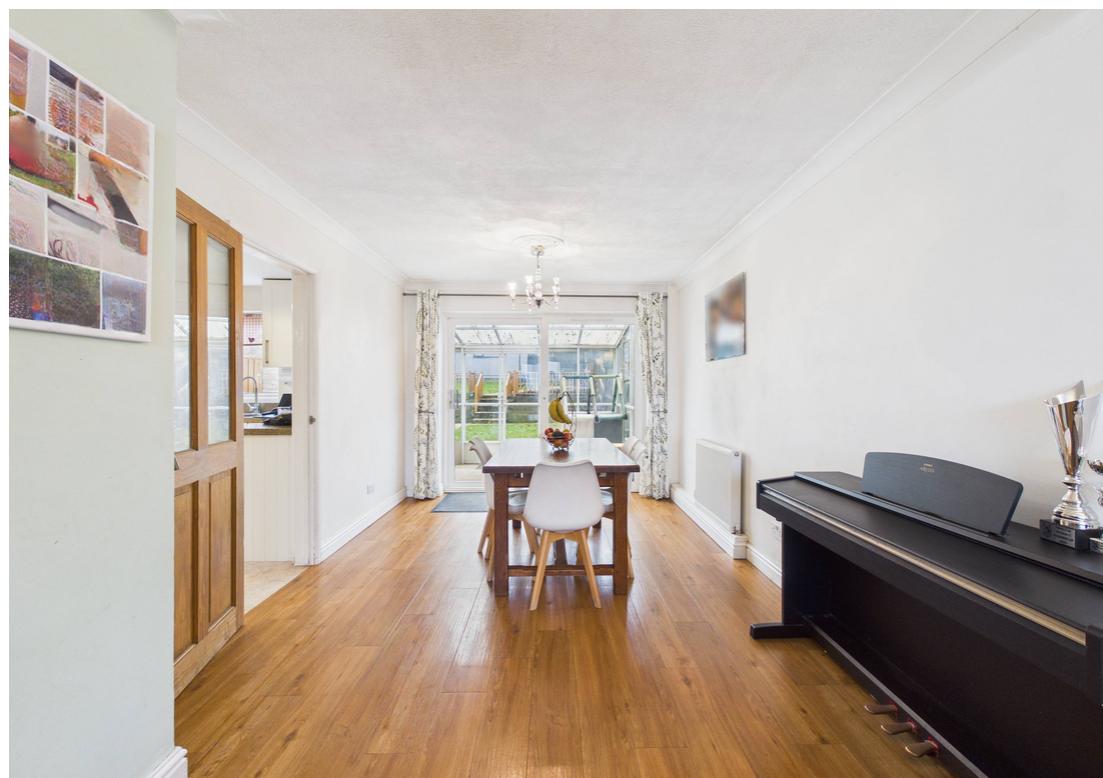

Already extended to the front, the property offers three well-proportioned double bedrooms. For those needing a separate workspace or an additional area for entertaining, the garden office provides a flexible and practical solution.

Planning permission has previously been granted for a double-storey rear extension, allowing for the creation of a principal bedroom suite and additional living space. The proposed layout includes a utility room and a further reception room on the ground floor, offering excellent potential to futureproof the home.

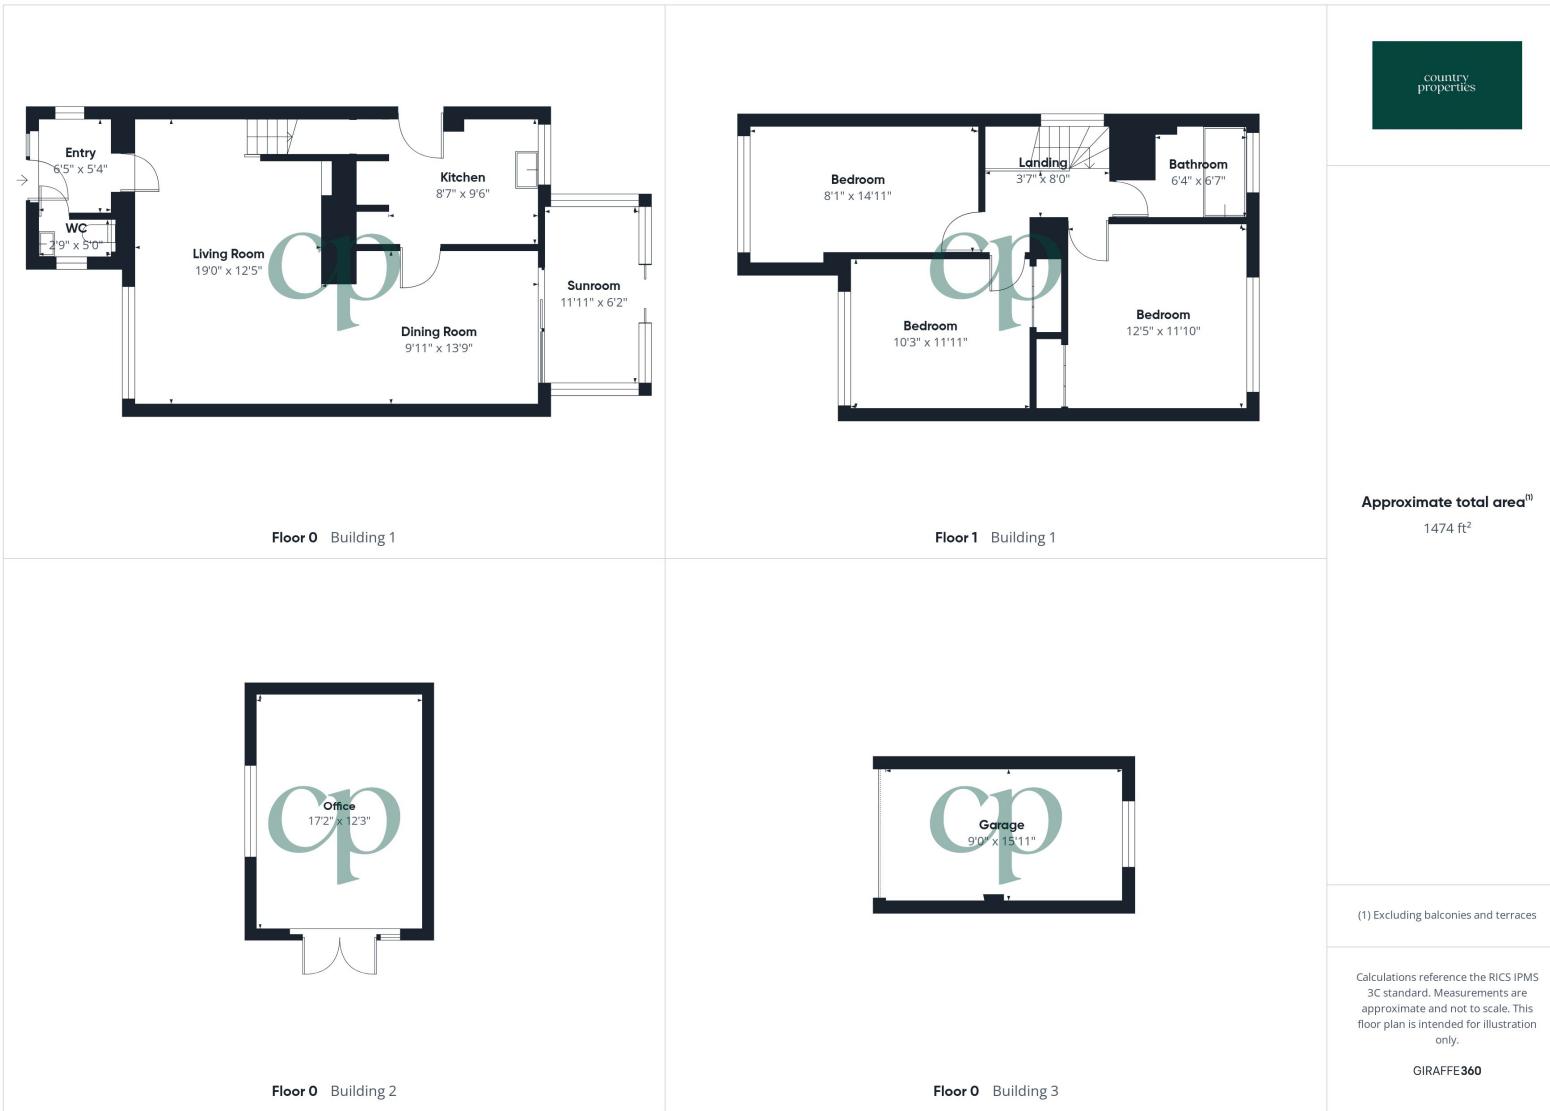

Set in a highly desirable location, this is a must-see property for buyers looking to create a long-term family home.
