This beautifully presented mid-terrace home is set within a cul-de sac location, convenient for local amenities. The accommodation includes a welcoming living room which leads through double doors to the refitted kitchen/breakfast room - thoughtfully designed with integrated appliances (as stated) seamlessly blending style and functionality. Upstairs, you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms, along with a stylish refitted bathroom featuring contemporary fixtures and fittings. Adding further appeal, the attractive rear garden is designed for ease of maintenance with an artificial lawn and gravelled areas, whilst two allocated parking spaces are conveniently located immediately to the front of the property. The town centre offering a range of shops and amenities (including the mainline rail station which provides a fast and frequent service to St Pancras International from as little as 41 mins) is within 0.4 miles, whilst junction 12 of the M1 is within 3.2 miles. EPC Rating: C.
