Description

Located within a setback position in its own grounds and found in the highly desirable village of Chapmanslade is this individual and imposing five bedroom historic home (the main house has been divided into two) set within extensive and beautiful grounds, designed ideally for multi-generational living, with a purpose built detached bungalow included within the gardens.

The Main House

The main house provides five spacious bedrooms enjoying lots of natural light and two family bathrooms. The ground floor offers a good size kitchen with a range of base and wall mounted cabinets, integrated oven, and fitted sink inset into the worktop. The kitchen has a handy adjoining utility room. There is a separate dining room, large triple aspect lounge, rear sunroom, secondary living room and kitchen, cloakroom and large entrance hallway.

The Bungalow

The self-designed and purpose built two double bedroom detached bungalow has a large lounge to the front with views onto the garden. There is an open plan kitchen and separate dining room, two bathrooms and an access porch.

Outside

Externally the home enjoys extensive wall enclosed lawned gardens to the front, with surround planting beds. The cottage has a garden to the front with separate access gate which could be made more private. To the rear of the main house the rear garden is high level hedge enclosed, mainly laid to lawn with a handy patio seating area.

The bungalow has a separate garden that is mainly laid to patio, which could again be further enclosed to create a more private set up. There is large driveway parking to the front, which immediately splits toward the bungalow providing two spaces for the property.

The driveway continues to the main house and adjoining cottage with ample space for multiple vehicles.

Location

The vibrant village of Chapmanslade which offers a primary school, public house, church and village hall. The nearby towns include Warminster, Westbury and the market town of Frome. Private schooling is to be found in Beckington, Warminster and Bath. There are main line stations in Frome and Bath with regular services to London Paddington from Westbury.
