Tucked down a maze of country lanes and surrounded by woodland, Minstead is a perfect forest location for an idyllic lifestyle

The Local Area

Minstead is a perfect village in miniature. Tucked down a maze of country lanes and surrounded by woodland, it is tranquil and unspoiled, yet surprisingly and accessibly close to junction one of the M27 at Cadnam.

For a small village it punches well above its size in terms of community and history. Overlooking its delightful green is a popular country inn, The Trusty Servant, which also houses the village shop that serves as a community hub. There's also a quirky parish church which is the resting place of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes.

Nearby are what are thought to be two of the oldest oak trees in the forest as well as the Rufus Stone, marking the spot where King William II was shot by an arrow.
