

Old Chapel Hall Cottage | Bolton Village

Welcome home to the beautiful Old Church Hall Cottage...

OLD CHURCH HALL COTTAGE

Originally the village church hall, the property was comprehensively rebuilt and extended in 2015–2016 and has since been meticulously cared for and enhanced by the current owners. Today, it stands as a refined and beautifully considered home, framed by traditional dry-stone walls and approached through a sage-green painted picket gate. A sandstone path, edged with gravel beds and established planting, leads to the front door, while thoughtfully designed gardens wrap around the property to capture sunlight throughout the day. The front garden enjoys morning and midday sun, while the south-east and south-west facing rear garden is ideal for long afternoons and evenings outdoors. A gated driveway, garage and additional side access complete the approach.
