AT A GLANCE...

A substantial west-facing rear garden with a log cabin and spacious accommodation make this detached house particularly impressive. This property is conveniently located just metres from the iconic seafront promenade, Collington train station, and the town centre. Under current ownership, the property has been meticulously maintained and upgraded to an exceptionally high standard, with a number of thoughtful features including; The entrance porch opens to an inviting reception hall with an integrated bar, making it an ideal place for entertaining. The house features two large reception rooms with bay windows as well as a modern kitchen and breakfast room. In the kitchen, you will find matching wall and base units as well as appliance space. There is ample space for dining furniture in the breakfast room, which has both double doors and bi-folding doors out to the sun terrace. Currently, the ground floor includes a home office that could possibly be used as a fifth bedroom. This room has a kitchen off it, making it ideal for annexe accommodation if needed. A cloakroom and boiler room are also available on the ground floor. There are four particularly spacious double bedrooms on the first floor, one of which has a walk-in wardrobe, and three of which have ensuite bathrooms. Each of the three bathrooms has a very generous proportion and is completely tiled. Furthermore, the house features engineered oak flooring, double glazing and has gas central heating with a newly installed boiler two years ago. It also includes a highly efficient mega-flow hot water tank. Viewing this fantastic property at your earliest convenience is essential to fully appreciate all it has to offer.
