Description

Number 20 is situated in a cul-de-sac therefore affording a quiet position yet within close proximity of the city centre.

The property is approached via a brick-block driveway which provides ample parking for numerous vehicles and also to the gated side access.

Once inside the central hallway leads to all the ground floor rooms with the dual aspect sitting room overlooking the front as well as the lawned rear garden and terrace. The generous dining room has a front aspect and the smartly refitted kitchen/breakfast room to the rear.

Upstairs there are 4 generous bedrooms and a recent family bathroom with separate shower enclosure. The generous loft space is ideal for conversion STPP/regulations and the roof is prime for solar energy generation.

To the side of the house there is a large area where subject to obtaining the relevant consents, the house could be extended further – this also leads to the rear garden which has a wonderful terrace and well stocked flowering borders. The property is offered with no onward chain.
