Description

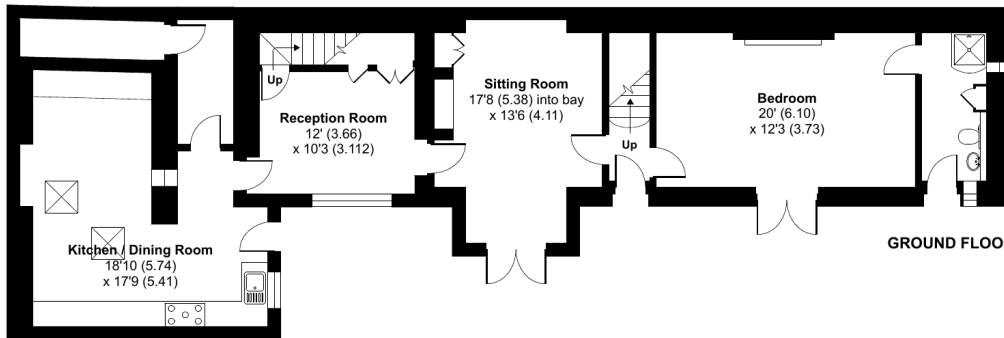

Conveniently positioned close to the High Street, Glastonbury Tor, and the Abbey, this beautiful and sympathetically improved period home currently operates as a sought-after holiday cottage. The accommodation offers a variety of living arrangements, with the ground floor comprising two reception rooms, a well-proportioned kitchen/dining room, and a substantial bedroom with a fireplace and an en-suite shower room. The property offers a multitude of features, to include parquet floors, a wood burner, and French doors opening to a charming walled garden. Two sets of stairs lead to a modern family bathroom and three double bedrooms, two revamped en-suite shower rooms, on the first floor.
