The Property

This beautiful, character home lies within a conservation area in the very heart of the village of West Tytherley. Originally built in 1842 as the village school for the Barings family, the property offers an elegant façade of detailed brickwork with blue brick diaper patterns, cast-iron, diamond-patterned casement windows and tall, ornate and decorated brick chimneys.

A central entrance porch opens into a hallway linking to a double aspect living room with an open woodburning fireplace and a double aspect family room with side aspect bay window. The hallway then continues through to the kitchen, which is fitted with a stylish range of modern units, built-in appliances, a marble butler sink and quartz worksurfaces. The adjoining dining room is fully glazed to the side and rear, enjoying views across the terrace and garden. Further rooms to this level include a study/fourth bedroom, a utility room and a cloakroom.

On the first floor, a landing area links to the principal bedroom with en-suite facilities, three additional bedrooms and a modern family bathroom with a shower over the bath and a striking marble sink.
