Summary

Occupying a prominent position on the outskirts of Fraserburgh Findlay's is ideally positioned for passing trade and serving the local community. It is well known locally, has a great reputation, and is very well supported by the local community and visitors to the area.

The sale of Findlay's is a great opportunity for someone either seeking a solid investment or looking to acquire a business with great potential that could be run as owner occupier once the lease expires.

Situation

Findlay's is located on Smiddyhill Road on the outskirts of Fraserburgh and is ideally placed for tourists exploring the North East of Scotland or business travellers working in the local area. The towns of Peterhead, Banff and Turriff are a short distance away. Aberdeen is the closest major city approximately 38 miles away. Known as the capital of the North Sea oil and gas industry it has a busy international airport with a great range of daily flights and shuttle services to London Heathrow. It also has a main

The Business

Findlay's Hotel & Restaurant operates as a Restaurant with Rooms on the edge of Fraserburgh. It is currently leased with an annual rent of £36,000 per annum. There is approximately 2 years remaining on the lease.

The bar and restaurant are incredibly popular and well supported by the local community. There is a shortage of hotel rooms available in the town and area and therefore the rooms are very popular with tourists and business people.

The business may be available by separate negotiation.

Property

Findlay's is a substantial single story modern brick building. Entrance is from the car park and into the main reception area. To the right hand side is the spacious function room and private dining room. To the left is the dining area and conservatory overlooking the front of the property.
