

This immaculately presented three bedroom mid-terrace house is offered to the market having been recently renovated throughout, ideally situated close to multiple nearby schools including Langley Grammar School, shops, and other amenities including the leisure centre just five minute walk away.

The property has been fitted with a contemporary security front door that leads directly into an impressive 19ft reception room, boasting modern interior and high specification entertainment lights within the coving, and an underfloor heated tiled floor. The ground floor also features downstairs cloakroom and a beautifully presented 12ft fitted kitchen, benefitting from Quartz worktops, four ring gas hob and integrated appliances.

To the first floor are three good sized bedrooms, all occupying ample integrated storage space. A three piece family bathroom with underfloor heating is also situated on the first floor.

Externally, there is off-street parking for two cars at the front where automatic driveway lights have been fitted, as well as motion-activated flood light for extra security. An additional 2-3 parking spaces are accessible to the rear via a gated entrance at the back of the garden.

The garden is of a great size and features a well-manicured lawn and large patio areas for outdoor furniture, and a timber built shed.

The property would be suited to as a family home and is offered to the market with no onward chain inviting the possibility of a quick sale.
