Heathway Church Hill, Charing Heath, Kent. TN27 0BU.

£895,000 Freehold

Property Summary

"It is not often I see a property presented to such a high standard. Heathway will make a really comfortable home for the new buyer". - Philip Jarvis, Director.

A spacious five bedroom detached property found in a semi-rural location in Charing Heath.

The current owners have meticulously developed the house in the seventeen years they have lived here creating a really stunning home.

Downstairs to the front of the property there is a large double aspect sitting room with double doors leading out onto a veranda. To the rear is an imposing 'L' shaped kitchen/family/dining room with bifold doors leading out onto an extensive patio and then the garden. There are also two bedroom downstairs, although currently one is used as a home office. There is also a useful shower room and utility area off the kitchen.

Upstairs the main bedroom boasts built in cupboards and a large ensuite bathroom with roll top bath and separate shower cubicle. There are two further bedrooms and a shower room.

Sitting on a well proportioned plot the sunny aspect rear garden spreads round to one side of the property. Here there is a summerhouse with an ensuite shower room which would work well as an occasional bedroom for guests.

The current owners have also converted the right hand side of the double garage into a bar, ideal for entertaining. The left hand side garage remains and there is a long driveway offering an ample parking area with a five bar gate.

Not often does a property of such quality become available so an early viewing comes most recommended.

Charing Heath is a popular village found between the two larger villages of Lenham and Charing. Both villages offer a wide range of facilities to include schools, doctors surgeries and railway stations. The M20 motorway is also easily accessed at Leeds village.
