Description

Exceptional, rural views; an extensive, level, south-facing garden; and a large driveway with a double garage are just a few of the assets of this spacious bungalow, which is being sold for the first time since it was built by the current owner and is now offered with no onward chain.

On almost third of an acre, the bungalow is well-positioned on its enviable plot, providing ample parking and gardens on three sides with fabulous uninterrupted countryside views. The living space is at the back of the property, making the most of the views. The open-plan kitchen diner is well-equipped and complemented with a conservatory from overlooking the garden and open countryside. The double aspect sitting room also enjoys these lovely views with sliding glass doors giving access to the patio and gardens. Three bedrooms, located at the front and side of the property also look out onto gardens which surround the bungalow. A shower room and a separate WC complete the accommodation. Access to the property is via an entrance lobby leading into the main entrance hall or through a side covered passageway linking the bungalow to the garages which offers useful a further useful storage/utility area and gives access to the rear gardens.

Outside

An extensive block paved driveway and shingle parking area provide space for many vehicles. Lawned gardens wrap around the property on three sides, and there are gates to the fenced rear garden on either side of the bungalow where far reaching views across the Somerset countryside to the South greet you. A large, terraced area offers the perfect space for relaxing and entertaining, whilst most of the plot, which is presently laid mainly to lawn, offers great scope for the green-fingered to create a truly wonderful garden to frame the landscape beyond.
