WHAT THE FAMILY SAY

As a young family we have loved living in this home. The local area has so much to offer, with Moneyhole playing fields on our doorstep, local woodland walks, good schools, local shops, Tewinbury Farm and Cole Green Way short walks away. Forrester's Drive is such a quiet street with friendly neighbours that we will miss. It is an adaptable home that has served us well with 3 good sized rooms so the children never struggled with toy space when smaller and we have easily adapted the old playroom to an office as they have got older. We love opening up our bi-folds and french doors, creating a more open plan home for entertaining in the Summer months. We have had many happy years here raising our family.

ABOUT PANSHANGER

Panshanger was a large country house located between the outer edge of Hertford and Welwyn Garden City. It was originally owned by Earl Cowper who later became Lord Chancellor of Great Britain. After seven generations, with no heir, the estate was sold and demolished c.1953. Panshanger Park is presently owned by Lafarge. Although Panshanger House was demolished, the orangery, nursery garden wall and stables remain along with a number of other cottages and estate buildings, all of which are listed by English Heritage. Residential housing was established in the area in the seventies. Moneyhole park playing fields and Panshanger woodlands are within walking distance. Local amenities include a small parade of shops including a Doctors surgery, Chemist, Post office, Hair salon, Beauticians. There is also a Morrison's supermarket and petrol station.
