Description

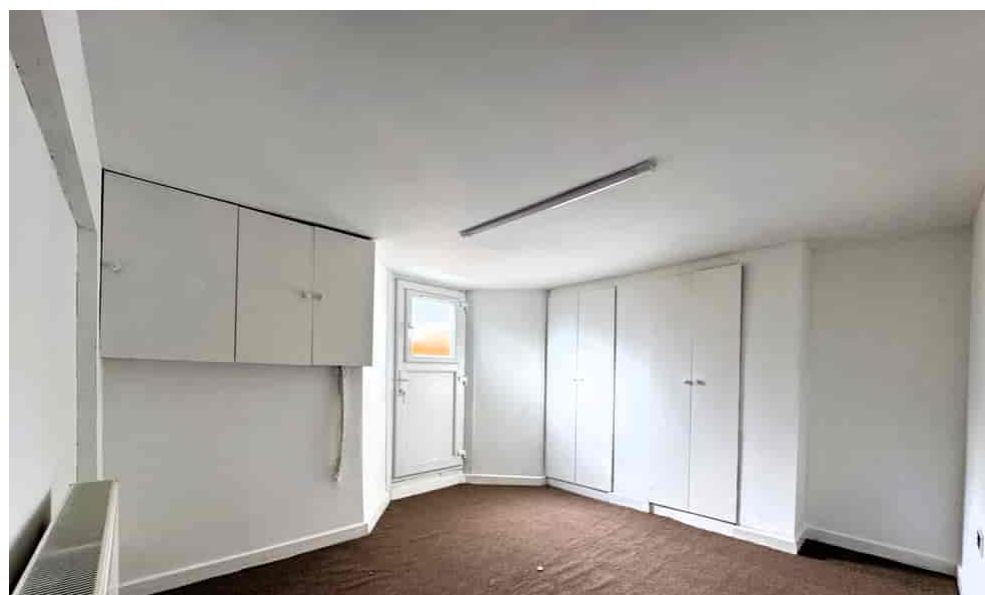

Discover this unique and spacious 4-bedroom terraced home, perfectly positioned in a sought-after neighbourhood known for its warm community feel and easy access to local amenities. Cleverly arranged over multiple levels, this property offers character, versatility, and impressive space for families, professionals, or anyone seeking a comfortable and well-connected home. The standout feature is the generously sized basement bedroom, complete with its own private door leading directly to the driveway—offering convenient parking for one car and ideal independence for guests, older children, or a home office with separate access. Head up to the front entrance, where stairs lead you into two bright and inviting reception rooms. These versatile spaces are perfect for cosy evenings in, family gatherings, or a stylish dining area. The layout flows seamlessly toward the rear of the property, where you’ll find a well-designed kitchen with plenty of storage and worktop space. Adjacent to the kitchen is the family bathroom, ideally positioned and naturally bright. The first floor hosts three further well-proportioned bedrooms, each benefiting from abundant natural light and offering plenty of room for relaxation, work, or storage. Outside, the private rear garden provides a peaceful retreat—ideal for outdoor dining, gardening, or unwinding in the warmer months. Additional perks include central heating, double glazing, and thoughtful storage throughout. With excellent transport links, reputable schools, and shops and parks just a short walk away, this charming home offers both convenience and comfort. Don’t miss your chance to view this wonderfully unique property—schedule a viewing today!
