With its modern up-to-date touches to the enclosed private garden, no stone has been left untouched. Entering through the porch into the lounge, spacious with a bright and airy feel, it also benefits from an under-stairs storage cupboard. Moving on to the kitchen, a newly fitted 'Howdens' shaker-style kitchen with integrated appliances, 'Belfast' sink and generous wall and base units, as well as a dual-aspect plus French doors allowing access to the enclosed garden. Moving to the first floor, the double bedroom is of a great size, with plenty of space for wardrobes and drawers. The family shower room again recently fitted, elegant in style with vanity storage and heated towel rail. Externally, the private garden is laid mainly to patio with flower beds and direct access to the two-car driveway. Please call today to arrange your viewing.
