The Property

A substantial and attractive character stone built end terraced house enjoying a lovely village location offering generous family accommodation with beautifully mature large rear garden. A delightful property with many features with accommodation which briefly comprises of entrance porch, entrance hall, sitting room, lounge/dining room, kitchen, rear lobby, landing, three larger bedrooms, bathroom and separate W.C. Outside large garage, games/hobbies/home office room, garden store, and utility store. The property also enjoys oil central heating and U.P.V.C. double glazed windows.

As you enter the entrance porch and hallway you can see that the door and surrounding glazing is original stained leaded glasswork as is the staircase. There are exposed stone walls used as a feature and a well fitted kitchen and spacious bathroom with separate shower. The garden is very private and well stocked with many mature shrubs and bushes.

Surrounding the Cornish town of St Austell and its neighbouring villages is a surreal landscape created by more than two hundred years of clay mining. St Stephen offers a range of village amenities including shop and Post Office, a public house, primary, and secondary schools. The property is situated within driving distance of St Austell. St Austell itself offers a wider range of shopping facilities including the larger supermarkets and entertainments such as a bowling alley, leisure centre and cinema. Further afield lie the beaches of both the north and south coasts, the picturesque harbours of Charlestown and Mevagissey, the Lost Gardens of Heligan and of course the Eden Project
