The Property

Believed to have been built in 1900, the property has been enlarged and undergone an extensive programme of sympathetic improvements in recent times, whilst retaining many of the original character features. A covered porch with a partly glazed front door opens into the hall with oak flooring throughout and original pine doors leading to all the principal ground floor accommodation. The beautifully appointed sitting room features attractive coving and large bay window overlooking the south facing front garden.

The stunning kitchen/dining room has been enlarged and refurbished to provide a perfect space for family living and entertaining. The kitchen area is comprehensively fitted with a stylish range of 'Neptune' wall and base level cupboards with built-in larder unit, polished quartz worksurfaces, a breakfast bar, oak flooring and a range cooker with extractor unit over and double Belfast sink. There is also further space available for an American style fridge/freezer and a dishwasher. From the kitchen, aluminium bi-fold doors open onto an outdoor terrace and rear garden. Set off the kitchen/dining room is a separate utility area with built in cupboards and space for a washing machine and tumble dryer. From here, a door leads to the cloakroom and double doors lead out to the attractive rear garden.

The Property Continued...

From the hallway, a stairwell ascends to the first floor part galleried landing with doors leading to the bedroom and bathroom accommodation. The principal bedroom is a light and spacious room with two large windows overlooking the front aspect. There are two further double bedrooms to this level, as well as a separate w/c and family bathroom with roll-top bath, overhead shower and pedestal wash hand basin. The useful airing cupboard provides ample space for linen.

A turning flight of stairs ascend to the second floor landing area providing access to bedroom four with en-suite shower room on one side and a separate dressing area/bedroom five to the other. This bedroom features a window overlooking the front aspect, as well as two Velux roof windows.

Grounds & Gardens

The property is approached via a long, block paved driveway providing ample off road parking for several vehicles and access to a newly built single garage due for completion May 2025. Adjoining the driveway is an area of lawn garden flanked by planted borders and a timber fence boundary.

An area of lawn garden with planted borders extends down the side of the house and links to a delightful 'Mediterranean' style garden to the rear, featuring a low brick wall and inlaid flower beds surrounding the dining area. The boundaries to the property are defined by a variety of mature borders, shrubs and trees.

Directions

From Lyndhurst, proceed down the High Street onto the A35 Southampton Road, passing Bolton's Bench on your right and La Pergola restaurant on your left. Follow the road for a short distance and take the second left hand turning into Princes Crescent. The property can then be found towards the head of the apex on the right hand side.

Situation

Princes Crescent is a highly sought after location, conveniently located within approximately 300 yards of the open forest and is a quarter of a mile of Lyndhurst High Street. The village offers a diverse range of general and specialist shops, together with a popular primary school, historic church and visitor centre. The neighbouring village of Brockenhurst offers additional facilities and a mainline rail connection to London/Waterloo (approximately 90 minutes). Located in this quiet backwater, 24 Princes Crescent is situated within a short walk of the open New Forest.

The M27 (Junction 1) at nearby Cadnam affords easy access to both Bournemouth, Southampton, Salisbury and the M3 Motorway network.
