Vendor comments "We fell in love with our striking home, which forms part of a close community of only nine apartments within this contemporary and secure private development.

Living here has been a wonderful first step, and owning such a beautiful apartment among genuinely lovely neighbours, with whom we even share a WhatsApp group for the building, has added an extra layer of comfort.

Our apartment features modern contemporary décor designed with light, space and style in mind by the developer. The very reasonable management charge of just £1,200, which covers service charges and building insurance, helps ensure the building and all communal areas are well maintained throughout."
