Area

Iver Heath is a village located in the South Bucks district of Buckinghamshire, England. It is situated approximately 2 miles east of the town of Slough and 17 miles west of central London. The village is bordered by several other towns and villages, including Iver, Langley, and Gerrards Cross. The area is well known for its beautiful natural surroundings and picturesque landscapes, with many local parks, including Black Park and Langley Park and green spaces. One of the most famous attractions in the area is Pinewood Studios, which has been used as a filming location for many blockbuster movies, including the James Bond series and the Harry Potter films. Iver Heath is served by several primary schools, including Iver Heath Infant School and Iver Heath Junior School, as well as several secondary schools in the nearby towns. The village is also well-connected to other parts of the region, with easy access to major motorways and public transport links, including the M25 motorway and several local bus routes.

Schools

Within close proximity to the property, families will find a range of primary schools, including Iver Heath Infant School and Nursery and Iver Heath Junior School, both situated just a short walk away. Additionally, The Iver Village Junior School and Iver Village Infant School are slightly further away. For secondary education, options include The Langley Academy, Langley Grammar School, and St Bernard's Catholic Grammar School, all within a 2.6-mile radius, as well as Bishopshalt School, located 3.1 miles away. These schools offer convenient access to quality education for families residing in the area.

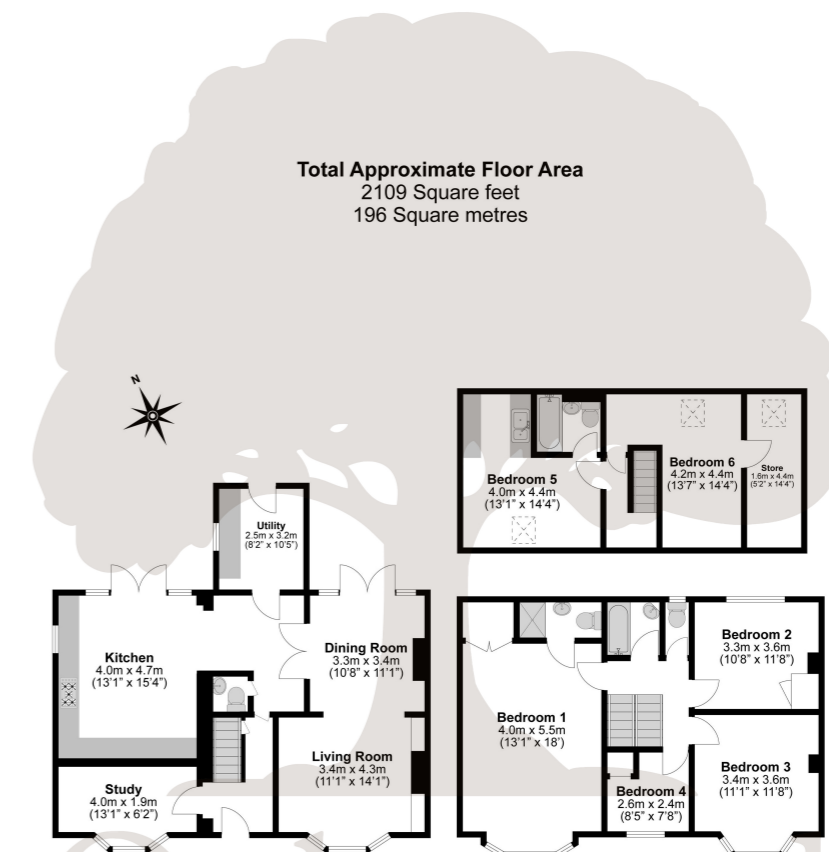

Transport Links

The property benefits from convenient access to several nearby train stations, with Langley station located just 1.8 miles away, followed by Iver station at 2.0 miles, and Uxbridge station at 2.4 miles. Additionally, for motorists, the residence enjoys a short drive to the M40 (J1) and M25 (J16) motorway network, enhancing connectivity to various destinations within the region.
