

Situated in a prime location within walking distance of multiple nearby primary schools, as well as Langley Grammar School, this three bedroom detached property is offered to the market with no onward chain, inviting a quick sale.

The ground floor features spacious entrance hallway with access to a downstairs cloakroom and leading to fitted kitchen. The main reception room lies across the back of the house overlooking the rear garden, and stretches 20ft with ample space for both living and dining furniture.

The first floor features three good size bedrooms and a family bathroom featuring modern tiles and corner shower cubicle.

The rear garden is mostly laid to shingle with gates for side access and dropped kerb to allow parking. Alternatively there is on-street parking available.

The property is ideally located a short distance from Langley station and would ideally suit a family.
