LOCATION

Seascale is a small coastal village on the edge of the Lake District National Park. Benefiting from its location just off the A595 and from having a railway station, Seascale is a perfect base for anyone working at Sellafield or any of the other employment centres located along the west coast. The village itself offers a good range of local amenities including supermarket, pharmacy, doctors' surgery, primary school and golf course.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to acquire this imposing 4 bedroomed period residence located on the coast in the pretty village of Seascale, with beautifully appointed accommodation and prime position on The Banks, just a short walk to the beach and the many amenities in the village centre, including supermarket and railway station.

This most impressive property retains many original character features, including ornate cornicing and beautiful tiled flooring which spans the hallway on the ground floor. Unusually, for one of these larger period properties, the accommodation is arranged across 2 floors only, making it a great choice for a young family. Briefly comprising entrance vestibule, hallway, 3 beautifully appointed reception rooms and a large dining kitchen with shaker style freestanding units to the ground floor. A split level landing to the first floor provides access to four bedrooms and office, with the family bathroom and separate WC also on this level. Externally, there is a walled garden to the front of the property, driveway parking for 2 cars, in addition to a single detached garage and a most beautiful private lawned garden to the rear, creating a perfect setting for families and children.

Properties of this nature are rarely introduced to the open market, with this one being perfectly suited to a wide range of buyers including families and someone looking to relocate to the area. Viewing is absolutely essential in order to appreciate the accommodation on offer.
