The Property

The bright, airy entrance hallway is finished with quality wood-effect flooring that flows seamlessly throughout and includes a custom-built fitted cloak cupboard and storage. At the end of the hallway, sliding pocket doors lead into the impressive kitchen/family room, the focal point of the property, with French doors opening onto the south-west facing patio and bespoke fitted storage in the living area.

Integrated appliances include a five-ring AEG induction hob with ceiling extractor, double oven, dishwasher, wine fridge, and fridge freezer.

A chic roller door leads to the utility room, equipped with automated lighting, ample storage including a double larder cupboard, space and plumbing for white goods, and a side access door to the garden.

The property includes four spacious double bedrooms, each offering generous space for furniture and storage, with one currently used as an office. The bedrooms are served by a luxury bathroom suite, featuring a separate bath with shower attachment, a wet-room-style shower with a waterfall attachment and glass screen, underfloor heating, and large tiled floors and walls.
