Property Description

Fox Paw Cottage has recently been completed by the current owners who transformed the home into this quaint and charming Victorian style cottage. The accommodation comprises a large open plan living space and kitchen on the ground floor with an adjacent room which could serve as either a bedroom or further living space. The kitchen has been built within a generous vaulted extension giving the room a distinct sense of space and there are four electrically operated Velux windows which provide a pleasant ambient light. The living area is focused around a wood burning stove and the kitchen features bi-fold doors onto the rear garden which spans the rear elevation. The first floor lays host to two double bedrooms and there is a fully-fitted family bathroom, all of which are centred around a generous hallway. The property also benefits from gas fired heating and would make a good second home as well as a possible investment property.

Gardens and Grounds

The rear garden has a westerly orientation is primarily laid out on hard standing, giving it a courtyard feel. There is outside power and lighting and a recess adjacent to the kitchen, ideal for furniture storage.
