Description

An attractive detached three bedroom family home that presents brick and tile hung elevations below a tiled roof with UPVC double glazing and gas central heating throughout. Inside the accommodation is laid out around a large open-plan living/dining room which leads into a conservatory that takes in views of the garden. The kitchen also provides access to a separate utility room and to the first floor are three good sized bedrooms with a separate family bathroom. Outside is a low maintenance area of garden which is enclosed and there is a driveway that provides access to a single garage. Offered to the market chain free.

Directions

From the Bannatynes roundabout, proceed along Battle Road turning right into Washington Avenue and then right again, then take the first left into Eisenhower Drive where the property will be found on the left hand side.
