

Stanmore is a leafy, tranquil suburb in North-West London situated between Edgware and Bushey. The last stop on the Jubilee line, a journey to Bond Street from Stanmore takes 31 minutes. It is one of North West London's most desirable areas due to its boutique cafes, shopping facilities, and location to prominent state and private schools which include Haberdashers' Aske's, North London Collegiate, St. Margaret's, and Stanmore College.
