

Manor Drive, London, N20

£950,000

Offering great potential to extend (STPP) and renovate, this four bedroom link-detached family house is a rare find in a sought-after residential road. Set over 1,600 sq feet, the property requires complete modernisation throughout - for internal pictures refer to the virtual tour. The property further benefits from a large garden, off-street parking and garage and retains some original period features. Conveniently located within easy access to Whetstone's local shops and transport links, Friary and Bethune parks and sought-after schools are also nearby. The property is offered chain free and early viewing is recommended.
