Hunger Hatch Cottage Little Chart, ASHFORD, Kent. TN27 0QQ.

£875,000 Freehold

Property Summary

"I absolutely love this cottage. The standard of this home is so high throughout and the secluded position is quite breath-taking. You must watch the drone video to appreciate the stunning location". - Matthew Gilbert, Branch Manager.

Proudly presenting to the property market this Grade II listed cottage which we believe dates back to the 15th century and was a medieval Hall house. Hunger Hatch Cottage is bursting with character throughout with beautiful exposed beams and two large inglenook fireplaces in both the formal living room and dining room.

The cottage to the ground floor is arranged to include an entrance porch, which leads through to the formal lounge area with large inglenook fireplace, smart kitchen with its very own pantry and breakfast room with double aspect views. There is a dining room with another inglenook fireplace with log burner. Added to this there is also a utility room and separate shower room.

To the first floor there are three good sized double bedrooms, all benefitting from built in wardrobes. Upstairs there is also a four piece bathroom.

Externally the property sits in a plot that is approximately 0.5 acres. From the road there is a solar powered gated entrance that leads along a private track to the cottage. To the front and side there are well maintained and beautiful stocked gardens which leads to a small paddock with stock fencing. There are various sheds that will remain and a beautiful sun terrace with uninterrupted far reaching views. Within the grounds there is also excellent parking with a large double garage offering a substantial storage area above which is fully boarded. There is also an oak car barn and a secure driveway for numerous vehicles.

Located between the villages of Charing & Pluckley this home is able to offer complete tranquillity as well as great accessibility with a mainline station to London from both Charing & Pluckley station. There is also easy access to the M20. The two villages of Lenham and Charing are nearby which host a wide range of amenities.

It is quite rare for a period home to be offered to the market that has so much to offer, so please book a viewing at your earliest convenience.
