properties

A stunning detached family home set in just over 5 acres of beautifully landscaped gardens. Situated in a semi-rural location, the property is surrounded by open countryside yet within easy reach of local villages and the market town of Hitchin.

Set behind gates and approached by a long sweeping driveway through the perfectly manicured lawns, the property is well presented throughout, offering versatile and well-balanced accommodation spaciouly arranged over two floors. The ground floor centres off an impressive entrance hall and features three bright, dual aspect reception rooms, bespoke fitted kitchen with central island and pantry as well as two cloakrooms and utility. The impressive principal suite is located on the first floor and benefits from its own dressing area, en-suite and Juliet balcony. The first floor also features four further double bedrooms, two with en-suites and a stylish family bathroom.

The fully enclosed mature grounds are a real feature and have been thoughtfully landscaped to include several different areas including manicured lawns and formal gardens, allotment with various raised beds, woodland with play area as well as a sports area with hard standing tennis court and detached timber studio with fitted kitchen and WC. Discreetly set off of the sweeping driveway is a detached triple garage block with two storage rooms.

Chapelfoot is located in a semi-rural setting in between Langley and the market town of Hitchin, with a variety of amenities close by including the popular farm shop and restaurant, The Rusty Gun, a number of country pubs and a choice of leisure amenities. Codicote is a pretty village to the south with local shops. Hitchin is just a 10 minute drive, a charming medieval market town with many fine Tudor and Georgian buildings, particularly around the market square. Near to the market square stands the large medieval parish church of St Mary. The town provides good shopping as well as a swimming pool, football team, two theatres, a wide variety of restaurants and pubs and highly regarded girls and boys schools. There is also a mainline railway station providing direct access to Kings Cross and Cambridge.
