Description

Charming and imposing Grade II listed building set in popular Bisley High Street with planning permission to be converted to a two storey residential dwelling. The 'Old Court House' which dates back to 1865 has period features throughout and occupies a lovely spot with views down through Bisley. Currently arranged as office space over two floors the planning permission (Planning Application S.23/0044/FUL) will give the buyer the opportunity to create a unique and contemporary residential dwelling arranged over two floors.

Outside

The property has on street parking and is within walking distance of Bisleys excellent local amenities. Stone steps to the right hand side of the building lead up to the first floor level.

Location

Bisley benefits from a village shop with post office, a well-established primary school, a church and two village pubs. This location also allows for easy access to the shops and amenities of Stroud, Cirencester and Cheltenham. Stroud town benefits from an award winning weekly farmers market as well as a variety of local independent shops and stores, pubs serving locally supplied beers and ciders and plenty of cafes, bars and restaurants to eat and socialise as well. The recently opened "Five Valleys" shopping centre is of particular note and is certainly worth a visit for a range of market stalls, food stalls and stores. The wider area has a range of shops and amenities, including supermarkets, a hospital, state and private schools, a leisure and sports centre and a main line railway station with inter city services travelling to London (Paddington). Cirencester (10 miles), Cheltenham (15 miles) and Swindon (25 miles) are all within comfortable driving distance.

Directions

From Stroud centre, take the Bisley Old Road, passing the Police station and leaving town. Continue for several miles and follow signs for "village only" into the village of Bisley. Proceed on "Stroud Road" which turns into "George Street" past "The Bear Inn". At the bottom of the road turn right on to the "High Street" and the property can be found a short way along on the left as indicated by our "For Sale" board.
