About the Property

Set within the highly sought-after West Overcliff Conservation Area and just a five-minute stroll from Bournemouth's award-winning beaches, this remarkable property combines almost 2,000 sq ft of elegant accommodation with a private entrance, expansive south-facing gardens and a wealth of period charm.

The original drawing room of the Maclean residence now forms an impressive sitting room, complete with an ornate fireplace, intricate cornicing, wall panelling and a magnificent bay window. High ceilings and original features continue throughout complemented by a spacious kitchen with a separate pantry and utility room.

The principal bedroom suite includes an ensuite bathroom and direct access to the gardens, while the second double bedroom is served by a generous family shower room finished in a traditional style. A large garden room, which is accessible from both bedrooms, offers serene views over the private landscaped garden, with the added benefit of a large cellar ideal for use as a home office, gym or studio.

Further features include a tandem garage, allocated and visitor parking.

We feel this property offers a perfect opportunity to sympathetically modernise a home of true distinction in one of Bournemouth and Poole's most prestigious coastal locations.

An early viewing is strongly advised to secure this rare gem.

About the Location

Situated in the highly prestigious West Cliff area, this property enjoys a prime location within walking distance of Bournemouth's vibrant town centre, with its array of shops, theatres and restaurants. The award-winning sandy beaches of Alum and Durley Chines are just moments away offering the perfect coastal lifestyle. A short drive brings you to Westbourne Village, renowned for its eclectic mix of stylish bars, cosy cafés, exclusive boutiques and independent shops.

Excellent transport links make this an ideal location for both work and leisure. Bournemouth's mainline railway station provides direct services to London Waterloo, while the nearby M27 offers swift road access to London, the Home Counties and beyond. Bournemouth and Southampton International Airports are both within easy reach and Poole Harbour's ferry terminal offers routes to the Channel Islands and mainland Europe.
