SITUATION

In the heart of the Kent Downs Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty is the charming village of Weald, which offers a quintessential countryside lifestyle around 2.4 miles south of Sevenoaks High Street. At its centre is a traditional village green, and further highlights of the village include a welcoming community-run shop and café, a well-regarded primary school, a popular pub, and an Italian restaurant, which all contribute to the warm village atmosphere and strong community. Weald is particularly sought-after for its balance of rural tranquillity and excellent connectivity. Nearby Sevenoaks provides a full range of amenities including shops, restaurants, leisure facilities, and a cinema/theatre complex. Families benefit from access to some of Kent’s top-performing schools in both the state and private sectors, including Sevenoaks School, Walthamstow Hall, Trinity, Knole Academy, and the annexes of Weald of Kent Girls and Tunbridge Wells Boys’ Grammar Schools. Commuters are well served by fast and frequent rail services to London from both Sevenoaks and Hildenborough stations, with Sevenoaks (3.3 miles) providing fast and frequent trains to London Bridge in as little as 23 minutes, and Hildenborough (2.6 miles) in around 31 minutes. The A21 and M25 are also easily accessible, offering convenient links to Tonbridge, Tunbridge Wells, London, Gatwick and Heathrow Airports, and the Channel Tunnel.

DIRECTIONS

Proceed south on the Tonbridge Road out of Sevenoaks, passing Sevenoaks school and take the second turning on your right into Weald Road. Continue for about two miles into the village and bear left at the church into Glebe Road. Continue until you reach the crossroads in the centre of Weald. Go across into Scabharbour Road, and then take the first right into Weald Close. No. 22 can be found on the right hand side when going towards the end of the cul-de-sac.
