If you are looking for a practical, well-appointed property do not miss this opportunity to view a beautiful villa located in the manicured communal garden of Los Molinos. Benefitting from being detached, this peaceful property was constructed in 1988 and has been kept in excellent condition ever since. You can enjoy all-year-round sunshine from the various terrace areas spread across the property. Los Molinos community is centrally located, close to Bellaluz Plaza full of restaurants and shops, and just a stroll away from the tennis center and other amenities. It also offers a large community pool for its residents with a popular poolside restaurant. This Villa also features a fully equipped kitchen that smoothly integrates into the living and dining area which benefit from PVC windows providing natural light throughout the day. The two well-maintained bathrooms and two bedrooms provide easy access to the meticulously maintained gardens. As sole Agents, we recommend you do not miss this truly unique and exciting opportunity and view it today!
